

Access to the Park Club Services is available for guests who have purchased the corresponding category of rooms (Regency Club, Regency Club Suite, Regency Executive Suite, Diplomatic Suite, Villa), as well as for guests who have purchased the Ultra All-inclusive food system.

When purchasing the Ultra All-inclusive system, the Sea View category room can be located in any of the hotel buildings and the food/drinks system.

If guests have purchased a Regency Club room, then room will be located on the first line (Sea Front category - direct sea view) and plus guests will have access to the Park Club Services, where there are breakfasts, snacks, drinks (alcoholic, non-alcoholic, freshly squeezed juices) in the lounge club, on the pool and on the beach in the club area.

If purchase a Sea Front room and Hard All-inclusive meals, then in this case guests will not have access to the Park Club Services, guests will simply have a room with a direct sea view and all-inclusive meals (the main restaurant and drinks in the main area of the hotel).

Guests staying in this room category have additional privileges.

Regency Club amenities

- o exclusive use of the territory of the Park Club
- o Exclusive use of the Park Club pool
- o exclusive use of the Park Club private beach area
- o exclusive use of the "family room" with TV and board games

Regency Club privileges