Important Notes

All Thai Weddings are tailor made so please contact our resort directly to receive more information.

- Official paperwork and marriage licence is necessary if your official marriage and registration is in Thailand. This is to be handled by your tour operator or local agent. Weddings at Anantara are purely symbolic and are not legally binding.
- Anantara Phuket is unable to provide any legal services or officiate over any formal proceedings.
- Wedding ceremony packages do not include accommodation, meals or any other services other than stated.
- Maximum ceremony guest numbers need to be agreed prior to confirmation. The maximum capacity for a wedding at the resort varies based on seasonality, but without exception there is a limit of no more than 100 guests. There is a requirement that the majority of guests stay at the resort (minimum 55 villas booked for 100 guests).
- Unused portions of the package are non-refundable in cash or in kind.

Please note: If the number of guests (including the bridal couple) exceeds 10 guests, there will be a surcharge of THB 500++ per guest.
